Summary

Product Management professional with a proven track record of delivering market-leading SaaS solutions. With deep expertise across the product lifecycle—from market research and design to launch and go-to-market strategies—I excel in transforming innovative ideas into scalable, user-focused products. My experience spans managing cross-functional teams, driving product roadmaps, and integrating with global platforms like SAP and Oracle.

At iMocha, I've helped accelerate recruitment cycles and enabled enterprises to make data-driven decisions through skills intelligence platforms. I'm passionate about building APIs, leading Agile/SCRUM teams, and fostering collaboration to deliver customer-centric solutions that align with business objectives.

Let's connect to discuss product innovation, SaaS strategy, and creating value-driven solutions.
